I understand the book I am pre-ordering—Exalted Second Edition—will be available during the week of May 26 thru May 31 at my local gaming store. In order to get my copy of this RPG, all I have to do is bring in my D&D 3.5 Player's Handbook and turn it in a one-for-one exchange. I am limited to one copy per person.

My local store is ordering this book for me on the basis of this understanding listed above.
